Study Leave

Study Leave begins on Monday 13th May, this is the day of the first exam. Once the first exam finishes, pupils will be allowed to leave school so that they can study at home for the rest of their exams.

Revision Sessions

Below is the revision session timetable we are offering to all of our Year 11 pupils. These sessions will be running when there will be no exams for any of our pupils. We think that these sessions will be of great benefit in preparing pupils for their summer exams.

All sessions are optional for pupils to attend, if pupils do attend, they will be expected to be in full school uniform as normal, and they will be expected to comply with normal school routines and behaviour expectations.
